SUBJECT: Determination Regarding Attendance by NASA Employees at an STS-126 Post-Launch Reception hosted by Pratt & Whitney Rocketdyne

NASA invitees, accompanied by their spouse or a guest, may attend a post-launch reception sponsored by Pratt-Whitney Rocketdyne at the Hilton Cocoa Beach Oceanfront Hotel, Cocoa Beach, Florida, on Thursday, November 14, 2008, from 9:00 p.m.-1:00 a.m., at the Grand Ballroom. This event is to be held in conjunction with the launch of STS-126, at the Kennedy Space Center.

This event will be a widely-attended gathering of approximately 300 representatives of government, the aerospace industry and the community. The cost of food and refreshments is approximately $38 per person. I find that the reception meets the requirements of a "widely attended gathering" as defined in 5 C.F.R. § 2635.204(g)(2). I have determined that free attendance at the above mentioned reception is in the interest of the agency because it will further agency programs and operations.

Accordingly, NASA employees who have been invited to attend may accept free attendance at the event. They may also accept invitations for accompanying spouses or guests. NASA employees whose duties may substantially affect Pratt-Whitney Rocketdyne, such as by way of procurement duties, should seek an individual determination pursuant to 5 C.F.R. § 2635.204(g)(3)(i), regarding participation in this event from their local ethics counselor.
